Community Involvement

RCNT are committed to bettering the community within which we work and have developed an Indigenous Participation Policy to cater for such communities. We aim to recruit as many local people to the civil construction industry as we can by offering development across a multitude of roles in RCNT. We provide both existing and potential Indigenous employees with skills and career development opportunities with the ultimate goal of retaining them and thus creating ongoing employment. RCNT foster a work environment that is culturally respectful and supportive so as to engage as many local community members as possible to further enhance ongoing relations.

RCNT has established partnerships with Karen Sheldon Training, GTNT (Group Training NT), Barkly Work Camp and IE Project (Indigenous Employment Project) to recruit and induct local Indigenous employees for all of our projects, as required. All recruiters specialise in Indigenous employment and training initiatives in Tennant Creek and are highly experienced with local employment barriers.

RCNT aim to support the communities that supports their business, through financial donations, donation of services and equipment and professional development through numerous committees and board memberships. The people of Tennant Creek know they can seek assistance from the whole team at RCNT for local sporting events, school events and community groups.

Jared Baldwin, Managing Director, strives to encourage and motivate RCNT staff to engage in the local community and participate in local events. Jared sits on the Regional Economic Development Committee and the Tennant Creek Mount Isa Cross Border Alliance Committee. Jared also sits on the Business Advisory Council.

Remote Concrete Community Sponsorships

Aileron, TC and Harts Range Rodeos

RCNT is a yearly financial sponsor of the Aileron Bush Carnival, Tennant Creek Rodeo and Harts Range Bush Sports Weekend.

Jared Baldwin is also a committee member and participates in the rodeos as a rodeo clown. RCNT employees attend each of the rodeos to support the events. The events attract local crowds and promote community engagement in each location.

Desert Harmony Festival

RCNT is a financial sponsor of the Desert Harmony Festival to support the development of the arts in Tennant Creek. The festival's theme of Healthy Eating, Healthy Living is an excellent initiative to reduce preventable illness in the Tennant Creek community, which affects RCNT employees and stakeholders.

Australian Agricultural Company Charity Rugby League Match for the Royal Flying Doctors

RCNT are financial sponsors of the annual AACo charity rugby league match that raises funds for the Royal Flying Doctor Service. RCNT's donation helps the Barkly Santas (men's team named after the Santa Gertrudis cattle breed) and the Barkly Babes (women's team) to compete against QLD cattle station owners, staff and rivals from across the border.

Tennant Creek Primary School Touch Football

RCNT sponsor the Tennant Creek Primary School touch football competition to ensure local children are able to participate in school sport. The sponsorship is in line with our company policy of encouraging healthy lifestyles and supporting community events.

Tennant Creek Cricket Club - Men's Team

RCNT sponsor the Tennant Creek Cricket Club to ensure they can maintain their facilities, support upcoming players and travel to remote communities to participate in the Barkly competition. The team travel as far as Alice Springs on a regular basis.

Tennant Creek Rugby League – Alice Springs Carnival

The Tennant Creek Men's Rugby League Club compete in the Alice Springs Carnival each year. RCNT are a financial sponsor of the club to ensure they can continue participating in the event, as well matches in the surrounding communities.

Certificate of Appreciation

Thank you for your generous donation to the 2015 'AACo Battle of the Border' Rugby League and Touch Football game.

The U12's Touch Championships were held in Palmerston from the 25th - 27th of August 2014. The team consisted of 9 boys from Year's 4 to Year 6, who showed teamwork and positive behaviour in the school environment as well as coming to training and demonstrating balls skills. With 2 wins against Katherine and at least one try scored every game this young team played with heart and improved every game. The boys from TCPS represented the Barkly Region with pride and sportsmanship which earned them the 'Team Spirit' Award. Special mention of Andrew P our lead try scorer and Locky who was selected as part of the NT U12's Touch Squad. We would also like to thank our sponsors of our playing singlets—Total Sports N Fitness and Remote Concrete, the team stood out and received many comments, it's fantastic to have the support of local business for our sports team. Thankyou also to Sport and Rec for their continuous support of the Primary School and Sean Clancy for his organisational skills. We are lucky to have you.

Thankyou from the support team Ruth Hillier (Manager), Joey McCarthy (Coach) and Kym Bracken (Driver).
